

Election News

Woman announces bid for tax collector

FORKS TWP. | Township resident Anne Bennett-Morse has announced her candidacy for township tax collector. Running on the Republican ticket, the Easton native has lived in Forks Township since 1995 and has worked as an assistant in the earned income tax office for more than six years.

A graduate of Freedom High School, Moravian College and East Stroudsburg University, Bennett-Morse lives with her husband, Scott Morse, and their three children.