EASTON | The city will honor three of this area's top athletes with a special Easton Greats in 2008 luncheon and awards ceremony Saturday afternoon, Mayor Sal Panto announced Monday.

Panto said Easton Area High School graduates Chanelle Price, Jarred Holley and Jordan Oliver will be recognized for their achievements both on the field and off. He was joined by Forks Township Supervisor David Howell and National Congress of Black Women Vice President Jean Brown.

"This class has been a class of greatness in all areas," Panto said. "These three that were chosen went beyond what most kids do, and they happen to be athletes."

The celebration will start 1 p.m. in Centre Square and will move to Larry Holmes' Ringside Restaurant. Panto said Holmes will also participate in the festivities, though specifics were not revealed.

"We're trying to highlight the positive," Panto said.

Admission to the luncheon is free, courtesy of Holmes. Panto said donations will likely be accepted at the door.

Brown suggested the idea to honor the trio, which Panto said led to organizing the celebration. Representatives from Easton and Palmer and Forks townships are involved because that's where the college-bound students live.
