

Forks Township club turns eggshells into miniature works of art

Posted by arichter March 27, 2009 00:23AM

Express-Times Photo | BRUCE WINTERAn egg sculpture depicts a bedroom scene.

The old saying goes that you can't make an omelet without breaking a few eggs. Making art is a little more challenging, but a lot more rewarding. Members of the Eggs Original Egg Decorating Club use the fragile shells as their medium to create fine art.

Marcia White writes about the delicate practice. the results of which will be on display this weekend at the first Eggs Original Decorated Egg Show and Sale at the Forks Township Community Center.

Find out how the artists work with such a breakable medium.

Categories: Lehigh Valley Entertainment, Today's newspaper-entertainment

Comments

Footer